

Bunny and Bradmore Charities – Student grants

Taking your 'A' Levels or similar qualification?

Going into higher education?

Living within the parishes of Bunny, Bradmore or Costock?

The Charities, through its Apprentice Fee Charity, can make grants to young people under the age of 25 living within these parishes who are undertaking a higher education course to assist with the purchase of books or other course materials. If you are moving into higher education this autumn or are already undertaking a course and have not previously received a grant from the Charities, you may apply in writing to the Trustees at the address below. When submitting an application evidence will be required showing your acceptance onto your proposed, or existing, course. Applications are considered by the Trustees at the next quarterly meeting following receipt of an application. Their next meeting will be on 2 September 2015.
