

Welcome to the Bunny Bulletin

The Bunny Bulletin is the Bunny Village monthly magazine. It was founded in September 1998 and is distributed free of charge to every household and business in the Parish of Bunny.

It is produced by a team of volunteers and is funded by Bunny Parish Council and advertising.

The Editorial Committee is conscious that the population of Bunny is constantly changing and is aware that the sense of community that many of us value is in danger of being lost. By promoting village activities and events, raising issues that affect the life of the village, giving a voice to Bunny residents and supporting local businesses and trades-people, we hope to foster a sense of belonging in those who live in our village.

EDITORIAL – DECEMBER 2008

First things first - new advertisements to check out. Opposite Christina offers hairdressing at home, whilst on page 49, East Midlands Helicopters at Costock suggest that a helicopter flight would make an exciting gift for that special occasion. If you feel in need of a pampering session go to page 51 where you will find Bunny beautician, Hannah.

Secondly, settle down with your diary and a pen and go through the Bulletin Diary pages. There is a lot going on in December and you won't want to miss it (especially the grey & blue wheelie bin collection on TUESDAY December 23rd!).

Church events feature prominently this month - and, given the season, rightly so. Having waited for nearly a year, it is good to see Goldie back on his perch and to hear the bells ringing once more. With the Christingle event preceding the lighting of the village Christmas tree and then mulled wine and mince pies in the Village Hall, it is hoped that there will be an even better turn out than last year. With our new neighbours from Church View and the, not quite so new, from The Wilderness there are now more Bunny residents than ever before. The Carol Service in the Church is always a popular event and, with mince pies to follow, it is a good opportunity to meet friends old and new. This year Santa himself and the Ruddington and Keyworth Rotary Christmas Float, will be waiting outside at the end of the service, before touring the Village with carols and making a collection for church funds.

We have a brilliant new local writer "Mrs Woman" on page 22 - don't miss this - and Pete Pearson after a short break, continues his "Bunny Legends", a series of profiles of the players in the very successful Bunny United FC.

Have a happy and peaceful Christmas.
