

Welcome to the Bunny Bulletin

The Bunny Bulletin is the Bunny Village monthly magazine. It was founded in September 1998 and is distributed free of charge to every household and business in the Parish of Bunny.

It is produced by a team of volunteers and is funded by Bunny Parish Council and advertising.

The Editorial Committee is conscious that the population of Bunny is constantly changing and is aware that the sense of community that many of us value is in danger of being lost. By promoting village activities and events, raising issues that affect the life of the village, giving a voice to Bunny residents and supporting local businesses and trades-people, we hope to foster a sense of belonging in those who live in our village.

EDITORIAL

February 2011

We have two new advertisements for you this month. On page 9 you will find Fiona Lee who is offering acupuncture at Keyworth and, on page 43, Bunny resident, Isabella Leone, invites those of in need of a local childminding service to give her a ring. (Also, thanks to Heather, on page 43 are the new post collection times - check them out!). I should at this point like to thank our advertisers for their continuing support. Some have been with us a long time, without them the Bunny Bulletin would not be possible.

By the time that you receive your copy of the February Bulletin, the village meeting about the Parkyns' Midsummer Weekend will have taken place. Rev'd Christine, whose idea it is, wants to stress that this is not a church event but one for the whole village. If you missed the meeting and are interested in getting involved or if you would like to hear more, she will have posters and leaflets available at the Open Church mornings, Saturday January 29th and February 26th.

Also available at the January Open Morning are tickets for the Fish and Chip Supper in the Village Hall on February 26th. If you turn to page 23 you will find details of this event and a ticket application form. This is a fund-raising event for the Church Fabric Fund and a good opportunity to get to know other villagers. Details of the funds raised in 2010 are listed on page 31. (It looks as though treating the woodworm in the beams doors, floor, and even the chairs will have the first call on this money!).

The bus wars between Premiere, and new arrival Kinchbus, look as though it may all end in tears for Bunny Residents. Read pages 16 and 17 to learn more.

Elsewhere in the Bulletin you will find items about Land Girls in Bunny, a kestrel rescued from an icy end, waxwings in a Bunny garden and a report on the well-attended meeting with the Archdeacon of Nottingham to hear about the future of Bunny Church.

P.S. Made a New Year Resolution to not buy any more clothes this year. Profits at George at Asda, Tweedies at Keyworth, and the Nottingham Hospice Charity Shop in Ruddington will take a nose-dive. Have slipped up twice already - a hideous, but very warm, hat from Ruddington and a pair of very expensive wellies - well you have to look after your feet!
