

Welcome to the Bunny Bulletin

The Bunny Bulletin is the Bunny Village monthly magazine. It was founded in September 1998 and is distributed free of charge to every household and business in the Parish of Bunny.

It is produced by a team of volunteers and is funded by Bunny Parish Council and advertising.

The Editorial Committee is conscious that the population of Bunny is constantly changing and is aware that the sense of community that many of us value is in danger of being lost. By promoting village activities and events, raising issues that affect the life of the village, giving a voice to Bunny residents and supporting local businesses and trades-people, we hope to foster a sense of belonging in those who live in our village.

EDITORIAL

January 2011

A rather slimmer Bunny Bulletin this month as it is only three weeks since the December issue and a number of events that we would have reported upon had not taken place until after the deadline. At the time of writing, members of the Parish Council are busy erecting the Village Christmas tree in preparation for the Sunday Lighting "Ceremony". I popped along in a supervisory capacity - mainly offering unhelpful comments - however one of my crutches did come in useful for adjusting the positioning of the lights. The annual Bunny Village Christmas Supper has been and gone. It continues to be, I am told, the increasingly lively event that it has evolved into over the years. You will find an account and photos from pages 19-21.

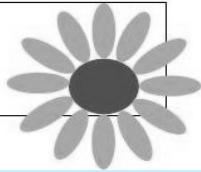

Jonathan Baldock concludes his series on road signs - disappointingly, no feedback from readers on the points he raised. Graham Norbury alerts us to the sale of Fairholme Farm and the likelihood of a planning application for dwellings on the paddock at the back. There is also an item on clearing snow from your driveway and the pavement in front of your house. You will find this on the inside back cover, for easy reference when we have the next snowfall. Still on crutches at the time, I was fortunate in having kind neighbours, Bernie and Pete, who cleared my drive and enabled me to take a walk to the gate. I had started to develop a bad case of cabin fever despite, a succession of lively visitors bearing news of the great outdoors! Perhaps we ought to give a thought to those who are housebound, because of the weather or otherwise, and make sure that they are not without help or company (see pages 18 and 19).

January brings a Barn Dance at Bradmore, a Pamper Evening at Keyworth and "Beauty and the Beast", also at Keyworth, the latter by the Northumberland Theatre Company - always value for money! "Nothing in Bunny?" you may ask. Well, there are of course the regular village events and the promise of a special "Parkyns' Summer Festival" (for which your help is needed - please come to the special meeting about this village celebration). Otherwise, there is not a lot on the horizon - so please read Hilary's article on page 28, and see if you can come up with some ideas for church fundraising that will involve providing entertainment for all.

Happy New Year Everyone!
