

Welcome to the Bunny Bulletin

The Bunny Bulletin is the Bunny Village monthly magazine. It was founded in September 1998 and is distributed free of charge to every household and business in the Parish of Bunny.

It is produced by a team of volunteers and is funded by Bunny Parish Council and advertising.

The Editorial Committee is conscious that the population of Bunny is constantly changing and is aware that the sense of community that many of us value is in danger of being lost. By promoting village activities and events, raising issues that affect the life of the village, giving a voice to Bunny residents and supporting local businesses and trades-people, we hope to foster a sense of belonging in those who live in our village.

EDITORIAL July 2011

First of all, glance across to the opposite page where you will find an advertisement for James Muston, fencing contractor. James and his family have recently moved into Pastures Farm on Main Street and we look forward to seeing more of them about the village once they have settled in. If you need a helping hand with the garden, or other jobs, during the summer holidays, try ringing the young Bunny resident whose number is at the bottom of the same page.

For those of you who have not elected to pay for your green wheelie bin, we have included details the nearest Household Waste re-cycling Sites on page 4.

Hopefully you will get this in time to be reminded about the Parkyns' Midsummer Festival taking place at the weekend. A lot of people have been involved in preparing for this so please do support them by coming along to as many of the events as you can. We are starting small but, if this year is a success, we hope to expand it in subsequent years.

The new lamp posts being erected in Bunny are generating more than a little adverse comment (page 15), it seems a profligate use of ratepayers/taxpayers money at a time of recession. Still on roads, there was an item in the post last week about alternative funding for the widening of the A453. Turn to the bottom of page 35 for details of where to send your support for the initiative.

Don't forget your tickets for the Nottingham Wind Ensemble Concert on July 2nd (page 21). Best buy them now, before they sell-out. The following Saturday and Sunday is "Open Churches Weekend" (page 29) and then we have a lull in the "Village Social Calendar" through August. It all starts again in September.

Look out the wildlife items this month - cuckoos and kites, field maples and Nottinghamshire Wildlife Trust all feature.
