

Welcome to the Bunny Bulletin

The Bunny Bulletin is the Bunny Village monthly magazine. It was founded in September 1998 and is distributed free of charge to every household and business in the Parish of Bunny.

It is produced by a team of volunteers and is funded by Bunny Parish Council and advertising.

The Editorial Committee is conscious that the population of Bunny is constantly changing and is aware that the sense of community that many of us value is in danger of being lost. By promoting village activities and events, raising issues that affect the life of the village, giving a voice to Bunny residents and supporting local businesses and tradespeople, we hope to foster a sense of belonging in those who live in our village.

EDITORIAL – NOVEMBER 2008

This month you will find two completely new advertisements - Lucie and Sinead offer a child minding service for the under 5s and Mark will take care of that grotty job of oven - cleaning - useful if you are intending to have a good kitchen clean and cupboard turnout before stocking up for Christmas. On page 3 John and Jo, at their new Garden Deli and Coffee Shop at Costock, invite Bulletin readers to sake mulled wine and mince pies with them and, with the festive season in mind. sample some of their deli produce.

Coming up - The Village Christmas Supper (page 15) - not until December 1st but you need to get your ticket quickly as places are limited (and it was a sell-out last year!). The Gardeners have a special speaker on the 12th, Nick Hamilton, son of the late Geoff Hamilton. For fans of Geoff this is a must as it will surely bring back many happy memories. I can recall coming home exhausted from work on a Friday, doing a bit of watering in the garden whilst listening out for the Gardeners World signature tune, then dashing in to flop in front of the tele with a glass of red. The weekend surely started there! Bunny School and Keyworth Methodists have Christmas Fayres - ideal if you don't fancy facing the Nottingham crowds - and the Jet Station are doing their annual fund-raising for Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Friends of Southwolds have a Quiz Night and the community School is putting on a Senior Citizens Christmas Lunch followed by a concert.

There is news on the Brickworks, reports on the Best Kept Village meeting and Pet's Service, notice of the Remembrance Sunday Service, lots of letters and a great recipe for green tomato chutney.

Village Events for November 2008

Wear it Pink at the Jet Garage!

This year in support of Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October we are taking part in the "Wear it Pink" campaign on 31st October. "Wear it Pink" is the biggest and best "Pink Day" during October, Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

This year, Breast Cancer Campaign is daring everyone in the UK to wear an item of pink on Friday 31 October and donate £2 each to the charity to help us beat breast cancer.

Obviously we can do much better than that and Kirk, Kevin and myself will be Dying it Pink!

Please come and sponsor us to dye our hair Bright Pink!

Being truly committed to the cause we will be using permanent hair dye. This really is for a fantastic cause, and we urge you all to dig deep.
