

Welcome to the Bunny Bulletin

The Bunny Bulletin is the Bunny Village monthly magazine. It was founded in September 1998 and is distributed free of charge to every household and business in the Parish of Bunny.

It is produced by a team of volunteers and is funded by Bunny Parish Council and advertising.

The Editorial Committee is conscious that the population of Bunny is constantly changing and is aware that the sense of community that many of us value is in danger of being lost. By promoting village activities and events, raising issues that affect the life of the village, giving a voice to Bunny residents and supporting local businesses and trades-people, we hope to foster a sense of belonging in those who live in our village.

EDITORIAL FOR NOVEMBER 2009

Grumpy Pete writes "I would like to apologise to all recipients of the Bunny Bulletin for the face adorning your coffee table for November. It is there against my wishes. Apparently, Parish Council members had all agreed, when I was away, to appear at some time during the year. The only consolation you have is that it is not a page 3 or a centre-fold pose, that would be grotesque". I think that we can all agree with that sentiment!.

Now you really must get your diaries out and fill in a few dates - Nov - Service of Remembrance; December - Village Christmas Supper at the Rancliffe, Christingle Service, Village Christmas Tree Lighting, Carol Service; January - Wine tasting Workshop. Some of these events have a limit on numbers so you need to book your place early.

As you will have realised, the Church is beginning a push to raise funds to repair and maintain the fabric of the building. Offers of help and ideas for events are most welcome - thank you to those who have already made suggestions - your ideas are being worked upon. It is hoped that, as well as raising money, good value entertainment will be provided and each event will go some way to drawing our community together.

Whilst mentioning volunteering and the community, I cannot help but make a plea for assistance with the Lunch Bunch. Jan, who heads up this monthly luncheon for villagers each month, is finding that a lack of helpers, particularly someone who can take over the organisation of a lunch when she is unable to do so, is putting Lunch Bunch in jeopardy..

There is an interesting item this month from Neil Pinder, a Keyworth resident who envies us our Moor. Did you know that, of the objections to the published scheme for the A453 widening, one proposes an alternative route involving driving a road across Bunny Moor to link up with the A60. The objections and alternative proposals go to a Public Inquiry, starting on November 10th, and being held at the Rutland Square Hotel on St, James's Street, Nottingham.
